DESCRIPTION	Bloomfield's G/T program stresses a challenging curriculum of high-level content and fast pacing combined with high-level thinking skills such as problem solving, inquiry skills and creative thinking. Additionally, it emphasizes the development of self-direction, risk taking, curiosity, imagination, and interpersonal relationships. Students pass through three phases of programming. Elementary and middle school programs cover the Exploring and Focusing Phases. Extended Learning Activities (ELA) is for students who possess high intellectual capabilities, and Creative Arts of Bloomfield (CAB) is for students with exceptional talents in the arts. The high school program level covers the Developing Phase. This program is for both the students with demonstrated intellectual capabilities who wish to participate in an in-depth supplement to their academic studies as well as students with demonstrated talent in the areas of performing and visual arts. Bloomfield is a suburb north of Hartford.
